

Information on the implemented tax strategy of Nexeo Plastics Poland Sp. z o.o. for the fiscal year from 01.10.2021 to 30.09.2022

General information about Nexeo Plastics

Nexeo Plastics specializes in the distribution of thermoplastic raw materials. The Company's products include the main polymer groups: polyethylene, polypropylene, polystyrene, and technical polymers, such as ABS, SAN, polycarbonate, polyamide, POM, and PBT.

The plastics industry continues to be a key element in the innovation of many products and technologies in other sectors of the economy, such as automotive, construction, packaging and healthcare. Central Europe ("CEE") continues to generate growth in plastics consumption, and average per capita plastic consumption is still lower in CEE than in Western Europe. The largest market in CEE is Poland - the sixth largest plastics processing market in the Europe after countries such as Germany, Italy, France, UK and Spain.

Tax strategy guiding principles and Nexeo Plastics' attitude to tax planning

In accordance with its Global Standards of Business Conduct, Nexeo Plastics is committed to conducting its business in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations, including the local tax legislation in all the countries in which Nexeo Plastics operates – including Poland. In terms of tax compliance, Nexeo Plastics is committed to:

- acting in compliance with all applicable Polish tax-related legislation;
- completing all applicable Polish tax reporting obligations; and
- calculating the right tax amounts and reporting and paying such taxes correctly and on-time to the applicable Polish Authorities.

Taking into account these leading principles, Nexeo Plastics seeks to ensure that any tax planning undertaken by Nexeo Plastics is in full compliance with the Polish tax legislation, has real economic substance, is not artificial and takes into account the potential impact on Nexeo Plastics' tax reputation. All transactions between Nexeo Plastics group entities are conducted based on the OECD's arm's length standard in relation to transfer pricing. Nexeo Plastics does not use any tax arrangements that could evade taxes or prevent the authorities from collecting them. We act lawfully, ethically and with integrity, and we expect our employees, customers, suppliers and any business partners to behave in the same way.

Information on Nexeo Plastics' processes and procedures for managing the execution of tax law obligations and ensuring their proper execution

The Board of Directors of the Company bears the ultimate responsibility for the Company's tax strategy and tax compliance in Poland. For the Board of Directors, the Polish tax strategy and tax compliance is one of the factors that is considered in all relevant business decisions.

The responsibility for day-to-day management of Nexeo Plastics' Polish tax affairs is delegated to the Nexeo Plastics EMEA Finance Director, who reports directly to the Nexeo Plastics Global Chief Financial Officer. In this day-to-day tax management role, the Nexeo Plastics EMEA Finance Director is supported by the Nexeo Plastics Director of Federal and International Tax. The daily Polish tax-related tasks and activities are performed by the Nexeo Plastics EMEA Finance Department and by local Polish tax and accounting advisors, in accordance with the general principles of tax compliance that are mentioned above.

The established system of processes and procedures and their control at Nexeo Plastics ensures that the actions taken comply with applicable Polish tax regulations and that tax obligations are paid timely. The accounting reporting process has been organized to ensure tax compliance. This system included tax planning, tax risk management, and various procedures governing the tax function.

Polish tax risk management and the level of risk that Nexeo Plastics is prepared to accept

In order to mitigate potential tax risks in Poland and to ensure compliance with all applicable Polish tax-related legislation, the Nexeo Plastics EMEA Finance Department has implemented and operates a system of tax-risk controls that is a part of the general internal control framework applicable to the Nexeo Plastics financial reporting system. Its main elements include the following:

- Nexeo Plastics hires tax staff with appropriate qualifications and experience;
- Nexeo Plastics seeks professional tax advisor support, if required;
- Nexeo Plastics maintains robust processes in order to ensure the correct tax reporting whereby all tax filings pass through a two-step check control (preparer vs. reviewer process); and
- Nexeo Plastics tax staff monitors all legislative changes that may impact tax reporting and the tax processes.

Taking into account the above mentioned principles, Nexeo Plastics adopts a low-risk tax strategy that is characterized by the following features:

- Nexeo Plastics carefully considers the tax implications of all relevant business decisions and transactions in order to ensure that they are carried out and reported in compliance with the Polish legislation;
- Where there is tax uncertainty or complexity, Nexeo Plastics engages professional tax advisors; and
- The Company does not undertake activities that could be considered so-called aggressive tax planning.
